Hospital Board Authorized—On motion the Presiding Elders were authorized to nominate a Hospital Board, for the Quadrennium, consisting of one preacher and one layman from each presiding elders district.

Communications—Communications were referred, without reading, to their respective Boards and Committees, as follows: Lord's Day Alliance, General Sunday School Board, General Hospital Board, General Board of Finance, Epworth League Board, General Board of Education, Board of Lay Activities, General Board of Church Extension.

Blackboard—The Bishop requested that a blackboard be placed at a convenient place upon which notices, telegrams and other matter could be posted, obviating the necessity of a public call.

Question Twenty-One—"Are all the preachers blameless in their life and official administration?" was called, and the following were passed in examination of character: H. M. Ellis, W. W. Graves, M. L. Burton, P. D. Hardin, J. A. Moore, W. M. Sullivan, and J. R. Jones.

The following were passed in examination of character, several of them brought messages of faith, hope and good cheer to the Conference, and their names were referred to the Committee on Conference Relations for the Superannuate Relation: Ira B. Robertson, W. W. Simmons, R. Bradley, L. Carley, J. T. Nicholson, W. W. Cammack, R. F. Witt, J. W. Brown, G. R. Ellis, G. W. Huff, E. D. Phillips, C. M. Martin, W. D. Dominick, B. H. Rawls, C. T. Noble, J. B. King, I. L. Peebles, C. H. Ellis, and H. B. Perritt.

Bishop Ainsworth addressed words of comfort and cheer to the Veterans of the Cross, "I am Bound for the Promised Land" was sung, and the members of the Conference gathered about the brethren clasping their hands with expressions of love, and prayers for the benedictions of heaven to rest upon them.

The names of T. W. Adams, J. M. Massey, and R. H. Barr were called, it was announced that they had died during the year, and their names were referred to the Committee on Memoirs.

Rev. Arthur J. Moore—Bishop Ainsworth stated that he had invited the Rev. Arthur J. Moore, pastor of the Travis Park Church, San Antonio, Texas, and formerly one of the General Evangelists of the Church, to be present at the Session of the Conference and preach at a suitable time each day. He also announced that Brother Moore would preach the Thanksgiving sermon at the close of the morning Session, after which the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper would be administered.

Announcements—Announcements and calls for meetings of the various Boards and Committees were made.

Committee on Public Worship—The Committee on Public Worship announced that Rev. Arthur J. Moore would preach at 3 o'clock p. m., and that the Board of Education and the Sunday School Board would hold their Anniversary at 7:30 o'clock p. m.

Introductions—Rev. Mark N. Terrell, of Sherman, Texas, one of the General Evangelists; Rev. H. W. Stough, an Evangelist from Chicago; Dr. R. H. Bennett, Department Ministerial Supply and Training; Rev. Percy Vaughan, of the Little Rock Conference; Miss Minnie Kennedy, of the General Sunday School Board; Rev. B. P. Jaco, Centenary Secretary of the North Mississippi Conference; C. O. Chalmers, Publisher of the New Orleans Christian Advocate; President Joe Cook, of the Mississippi State Normal College, Hattiesburg; Dr. E. K. Means, pastor of Galloway Memorial Church, Jackson, transferred last Session from the Louisiana Conference, and Rev. A. J. Leggett, of the Methodist Protestant Church in Mississippi, were introduced to the Conference.

Thanksgiving Service—The Conference listened to a sermon by Rev. Arthur J. Moore from the text found in the Book of Joshua, the twenty-fourth chapter, thirteenth and fourteenth verses.

Sacrament—Bishop Ainsworth, assisted by Mark N. Terrell, E. K. Means, P. D. Hardin and J. R. Jones, administered the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper, which was partaken of by the Conference.

Adjourned—The Conference adjourned with the benediction pronounced by Bishop Ainsworth at the close of the Sacramental service.

SECOND DAY

Crystal Springs, Mississippi, December 1, 1922.

Opening—The Conference was called to order by Bishop Ainsworth at 9 o'clock a. m.

Devotions—The Bishop announced Hymn No. 492, which was sung, and W. H. Huntley led the Conference in prayer. Bishop Ainsworth read a Scripture lesson from the fifth chapter of the Second Epistle to the Corinthians, and made a short address felicitating the Conference on the fine spirit so manifest.

Minutes—The Minutes of the First Day's Session were read and approved.

Roll Call—A motion was adopted that the Roll Call consist of calling only the names of the absentees of the previous day, and the following not present at the First Day's Session answered to their names: H. W. Van Hook, W. W. Moore, C. F. Emery, J. E. Williams, J. W. Thompson, D. E. Kelly, A. M. Broadfoot, J. F. McClelllan, H. R. McKee, E. H. Cooley, J. T. Weems, J. S. Duke, E. M. Allen, M. K. Miller, J. F. Watson.

Vicksburg District—M. M. Satterfield.

Roll Call Dispensed With—On motion the calling of the Roll at future Sessions was dispensed with.

Bishop W. B. Beauchamp—Bishop Ainsworth introduced Bishop W. B. Beauchamp to the Conference, and announced that later in the day the Bishop would deliver an address in the interests of the Centenary cause.

The following report was read and adopted:

Report No. 1 Board of Missions

To the Bishop and members of the Mississippi Annual Conference:

Dear Brethren:—We, the Board of Missions, respectfully ask that the following be elected to constitute the Committee on Evangelism of this Board, to-wit: C. C. Evans, G. H. Thompson and W. S. F. Tatum.

M. M. BLACK, President,
J. EARLY GRAY, Secretary.

The following report was read and adopted:

Report—Legal Committee Port Gibson Female College

To the Bishop and members of the Mississippi Annual Conference:

Dear Brethren:—Your Committee appointed to investigate the title to Port Gibson Female College and to make an abstract of the title thereof, and later requested to file a bill to confirm the title to said College, beg leave to report that, on account of the serious sickness of one member of the Committee to whom was referred the preparation of the Bill to be filed in the Chancery Court, the Bill has not yet been filed, and we, therefore, request that we be given further time to file said bill, and that $25.00, or so much as may be necessary, be appropriated towards serving process on the defendants to the suit and for publication of notice to non-resident and unknown defendants.

Respectfully submitted,
D. W. HEIDELBERG.

Dr. R. P. Wilson—Dr. R. P. Wilson, of the Publishing House, was introduced and represented his work to the Conference.

Special Secretaries—J. G. Galloway and W. T. Griffin were named as “Chalk Secretaries” for charting the reports of the several districts on the blackboard.

The following resolution was read and referred to a special committee composed of one from each Presiding Elders’ District:

Resolution—Methodist Headquarters

The following resolution is hereby respectfully presented by the Methodist Preachers’ League of Jackson to the Mississippi Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, meeting in annual session in Crystal Springs, Mississippi, November 30, 1922.

Whereas, there are special agencies ordered by the Conference for the promotion of certain interests of the Church throughout the bounds of the Conference, and,

Whereas, it is thought to be desirable that these agencies should have their quarters in some centrally located point within the Conference and that if practicable there should be some building secured as a domicile for this general headquarters of the various connectional interests; therefore,

Be it resolved that we respectfully memorialize the Mississippi Annual Conference to take such action as may be necessary to secure in the city of Jackson such general headquarters for the various connectional agencies of the Conference.

M. L. BURTON, President,
J. L. FERGUSON, Secretary,
B. F. LEWIS,
H. F. TOLLE,
F. L. APPLEWHITE,
M. M. BLACK,
JOHN C. CHAMBERS,
E. K. MEANS.

The following report of the Seashore Divinity School was read and received:

Report—Seashore Divinity School

To the Bishop and members of the Mississippi Annual Conference:

Dear Brethren:—We are glad to be able again to report to you a most delightful and helpful session of Seashore Divinity School. While the attendance was not quite up to the average, the spirit of good fellowship and the hearty and universal appreciation of the services rendered by lecturers and faculty made the Fourteenth Session the best of them all. At least, that was the opinion expressed by many in attendance.

Our lecturers were chosen from our own Southern Methodist leaders, and they gave us every reason to be glad. Rev. W. A. Shelton, D.D., of our Emory University, delighted every one by his instructive and eloquent series of addresses, and won all hearts by his delightful personality. And it is needless to say that our beloved and inimitable Bishop W. A. Candler left on all hearts and lives the impressions for good that will never be effaced.

The work of the Conference Undergraduate Classes, under our faithful Dean, Dr. H. H. McNeill and his Faculty of competent instructors, was at the high water mark in efficiency, and the young men taking the courses of study were greatly helped and delighted. We sincerely believe that every Undergraduate in these three Conferences would be greatly benefited by taking advantage of the opportunities offered by Seashore Divinity School.

The property of Seashore Camp Ground School has now been transferred to the new Board of Trustees elected by the last Annual Conference, and plans for improved boarding facilities have already been commenced. We therefore expect to have pleasant rooms and ample restaurant for all guests next session, and we ask all to take note of this greatly needed improvement.

We believe that the value of this training School for our Mississippi Conference preachers deserves as liberal an appropriation as the Board of Education can make for it. More of our preachers attend than of the other two conferences combined. Will not the Board of Education see that Five Hundred Dollars in cash is put into this work next session?

We are planning for another session as good, or better, than any before and we earnestly urge all our Presiding Elders and Pastors to make due note, and set apart for study, rest and fellowship at Seashore Divinity School.

June 12 to 21, 1923

We nominate for election as Directors, Rev. J. T. Leggett for one year; Rev. H. M. Ellis, for two years, and Dr. I. W. Cooper, for three years.

Respectfully submitted,
H. M. ELLIS, President.

Report Referred—The report of the Board of Directors of the Methodist Orphans' Home was read and referred to the Committee on Orphans' Home.

The following report was read and received:

Report of the Committee on the Repeal of the Mortmain Sections of the Constitution

To the Bishop and Members of the Mississippi Annual Conference,
Methodist Episcopal Church, South:

Dear Brethren:—Your Committee appointed to co-operate with similar committees from other Protestant Churches within the State for the repeal of the Mortmain Sections of the Constitution of the State of Mississippi, beg leave to report that they have throughout the year been attempting to discharge the duties imposed upon them. They have collaborated with representatives of the Baptist and Presbyterian Churches, the Joint Commission being organized with Major Calvin Wells as Chairman, and the Rev. D. M. Nelson, Secretary. An Executive Committee, consisting of Judge O. B. Taylor, Major Wells, and Rev. M. L. Burton, was placed in charge of the work of the Committee and have been diligent in their labors. At the advice of competent attorneys, including Mr. Roberson, the Attorney-General of the State, we decided to take advantage of the provisions of our Constitution known as the Initiative and Referendum. Petitions were circulated for the placing of this Amendment before the people of the State at the State election in November. Extensive publicity was given to the movement and there is every reason to believe that the effort would have been successful and Mississippi saved from the undesirable distinction of being the only State in the Union prohibiting bequests to benevolent institutions under the ownership and control of religious denominations.

A few weeks before the November elections, the Supreme Court had occasion to pass upon the constitutionality of the Initiative and Referendum section referred to and decided that the section was unconstitutional. This decision rendered void all past legislation under the section and rendered futile the efforts that we were making at this time to secure the ends in view. It is the unanimous conviction of the members of the Joint Commission that the fight for the repeal of the section should now be carried to the Legislature which will meet in January, 1924, and we shall ask the co-operation of the Protestant Churches throughout the State to use all proper influence with candidates for the Legislature to secure favorable action upon the bill to be introduced. We recommend the continuance of the Committee.

In the course of the business during the year it was necessary for us to provide our part of the funds required for the carrying on of the campaign, and we are advised by the Executive Committee that there is an indebtedness of approximately $275.00, represented by notes given to the Capital National Bank in Jackson by the Committee. We respectfully request the Conference to assume the indebtedness and to instruct the Conference Treasurer to pay the amount necessary out of the proceeds of the Educational assessment for the year 1922.

Respectfully submitted,

A. F. WATKINS,

M. L. BURTON,

J. T. LEGGETT.

Announcements—Announcements and calls for the meetings of various Boards and Committees were made.

Report No. 2 Committee on Public Worship

The Committee on Public Worship announced that the Rev. Arthur J. Moore would preach this afternoon at 3 o'clock, and that this evening at 7:30 o'clock the anniversary of the Board of Missions would be held, at which time addresses would be delivered by Bishop Beauchamp and Rev. C. G. Hounshell.

Class to be Received—Bishop Ainsworth announced that the class for full connection into the Annual Conference would be received at 11 o'clock on Saturday morning.

Introductions—Rev. C. G. Hounshell, Educational Secretary of the General Board of Missions; Mrs. Alma G. Riley, Field Secretary of the Orphans' Home; Rev. J. P. Harrington, pastor of the Crystal Springs Baptist Church; Reverends E. H. Cunningham, R. P. Neblett, C. M. Chapman, and W. C. Galceran, of the North Mississippi Annual Conference, were introduced to the Conference.

The Centenary Interests—Bishop Ainsworth announced that the remaining time of the session would be devoted to the consideration of the Centenary, a matter vital to the welfare of the Church, and introduced Mr. W. D. Hawkins, Conference Centenary Secretary-Treasurer, who made a report of the year's work.

Bishop W. B. Beauchamp, who before his election as Bishop was Director General of the Centenary Movement and now having Episcopal oversight of the important field in Central Europe, addressed the Conference. Bishop Ainsworth also spoke.

Adjourned—The doxology was sung and the Conference adjourned with the benediction pronounced by Bishop Beauchamp.

THIRD DAY—MORNING SESSION

Crystal Springs, Mississippi, December 2, 1922.

Opening—The Conference met at 9 o'clock a. m., Bishop Ainsworth presiding.

Devotions—The Bishop announced Hymn No. 489, which was sung; Psalm 46 was read alternately, and J. M. Morse led the Conference in prayer.

Minutes—The Minutes of the Second Day's Session were read and approved.

Question Twenty-One—"Are all the preachers blameless in their life and official administration?" was called. The reports of the preachers of the Jackson District were presented on the blackboard, interpreted by the Presiding Elder, their names were called one by one and they were passed in examination of character, as follows: H. M. Johnson, W. J. Dawson, H. A. Gatlin, B. W. Lewis, B. F. Jones, W. D. Barrett, J. H. Foreman, A. A. Sims, H. F. Tolle, E. K. Means, F. L. Applewhite, G. P. McKeown, J. O. Ware, C. E. Downer, W. L. Question One—"Who are admitted on trial?" was called, and the following, duly recommended by their several District Conferences, and having stood an approved examination on the Course of Study, and having been approved by the Committee on Admissions, were admitted on Trial: Charles Warren Wesley, from the Jackson District; Emmett Jackson Rutledge, from the Greenwood District, North Mississippi Annual Conference, and Rolfe Hunt, from the Vicksburg District.

Obed Burch Matheny, and Harvey Judson Oakley, duly recommended by the Meridian District Conference, and Nicholas Smuts Loftus, duly recommended by the Vicksburg District Conference, having stood an approved examination on the Course of Study, but not fully up to the educational standard required by the Discipline, and recommended by the Committee on Admissions, were, by more than a two-thirds vote of the Conference, admitted on Trial.

The following report was read and received:

Report—Committee on Lambuth Monument

Your committee appointed to effect the removal to the Campus of Millsaps College of the Lambuth monument, located at Pearl River Church on the Madison Charge, decided that the method of procedure was to secure formal approval of the proposition for removal by the quarterly Conference of the Madison Charge; accordingly our committee met with the First Quarterly Conference of the charge and learned that the members of the Quarterly Conference did not favor removal at the present time. Therefore, the Committee took no further action.

H. G. HAWKINS,
G. P. McKEOWN.

Report Referred—The report of the Trustees of the Port Gibson Female College was referred, without reading, to the Board of Education.

Telegram of Sympathy—On motion the Secretary of the Conference was requested to send a telegram of sympathy to the Hon. J. S. Sexton, an honored layman of Hazlehurst, whose brother, Dr. Luther Sexton, himself a member of the Methodist Church, died yesterday in New Orleans, and who is to be buried today at Hazlehurst. The telegram was sent as follows:

Hon. J. S. Sexton,
Hazlehurst, Miss.

The Mississippi Conference earnestly gives assurance of deepest sympathy in the death of your distinguished brother.

A. F. WATKINS, Secretary.

Question Twenty-One—was resumed. The reports of the preachers of the Meridian District were presented from the blackboard, information was given by the Presiding Elder, their names were called one by one and they were passed in examination of character, as follows: W. E. Dickens, M. L. White, R. E. Rutledge, W. G. Forsyth, W. H. Lane, J. L. Decell, J. L. Sells, L. E. Alford, A. J. Davis, W. A. Hays, D. E. Vickers, A. J. Beasley, J. D. Ellis, T. H. King, W. H. Huntley, H. A. Wood, M. A. Massey.

Rev. Crawford Jackson—Rev. Crawford Jackson, connected with the Juvenile Protective Association of Atlanta, Ga., was introduced and spoke concerning that organization.

Prof. Will Jacobs—Prof. Will Jacobs, Superintendent of the Mississippi Industrial and Training School, located at Columbia, was introduced and addressed the Conference relative to the work of that great Institution.

Conference at Jackson—Bishop Ainsworth announced that a great Conference on Home Missions and Evangelism would be held at Jackson, Miss., on January 16th, and 17th, 1923, and urged a large attendance. He stated that many of the outstanding leaders in the religious world would be there, and that an attendance was desired of all the preachers and at least five laymen from every charge with less than five hundred members and ten laymen from charges with more than five hundred members. The information was also given that a central committee was arranging for accommodations at reasonable rates for rooms for all who would attend.

The Bishop also urged that the Conference through the Board of Missions provide for at least three Evangelists for rural work.

A motion to support the Bishop in all the plans outlined was adopted by a rising vote.

The following report was read and referred to the Commission on Finance.

Report No. 2 Board of Missions

To the Bishop and members of the Mississippi Annual Conference:

Dear Brethren:—We, the Board of Missions would report that we have heard with interest the report of the work done through the Memorial Home as presented by Rev. W. C. Childress and recommended that the sum of $5,000.00 be assessed for the same for 1923.

Respectfully submitted.

M. M. BLACK, Pres.

J. EARLY GRAY, Sec.

Hospital Aid Offered—W. S. F. Tatum, an honored layman, and Mayor of the City of Hattiesburg, stated that he and Mrs. Tatum would gladly care for, at the Methodist Hospital, Hattiesburg, children between the ages of eight and eighteen years, who were suffering with curable diseases, and financially unable to secure Hospital treatment.

On motion a rising vote of thanks was tendered Brother and Sister Tatum for their large hearted liberality toward sick and needy children.

Conference Hospital Board—On nomination of the Presiding Elders the following Hospital Board was elected for the Quadrennium: I. W. Cooper, T. E. Enochs, C. A. Schultz, S. W. Sharbrough, H. J. Moore, W. A. Davenport, W. S. F. Tatum, James Hand, H. A. Wood, Dr. H. F. Tatum, Dr. W. A. Dearman, W. L. Blackwell, Dr. H. R. Shands, B. F. Jones.

Song by Whitworth Students—A delightful feature of the Session just at this time was the rendition of a vocal selection by a quartette of young ladies from Whitworth College, with violin accompaniment.

Question Six—"Who are admitted into full connection?" was called, and John Carl Jackson, Lemuel John Snelgrove, Martin Luther McCormick, and Thomas Commander Cooper were called to the Bar of the Conference, charged by the Bishop, and, having answered the Disciplinary questions were, by vote of the Conference, admitted into full connection.

Afternoon Session—A motion was adopted that when we adjourn we adjourn to meet this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Leave of Absence—Upon request leave of absence was granted to W. S. F. Tatum.

Announcements—Announcements and calls for meetings of various boards and committees were made.

Hogg, President of Port Gibson Female College; Rev. L. H. Estes, of the Memphis Conference, representing the General Hospital Board; Rev. J. R. Countiss, of the North Mississippi Conference, and President of Grenada College, and Mrs. Gayle C. Beanland, daughter of our W. M. Williams, a missionary of the Presbyterian Church in Africa, were introduced to the Conference.

Adjourned—The Conference adjourned with the benediction pronounced by Dr. H. T. Carley.

THIRD DAY—AFTERNOON SESSION

Crystal Springs, Mississippi, December 2, 1922.

Opening—Conference met at 3 o'clock p. m., Bishop Ainsworth in the Chair.

Devotions—Hymn No. 317 was sung, and Dr. J. R. Countiss led the Conference in prayer.

Minutes—The Minutes of the Morning Session were read and approved.

Absentees—W. H. Saunders, J. W. Brown, J. H. Grice and J. L. Sutton, not having previously answered to their names, were noted as present.

Question Twenty-One—"Are all the preachers blameless in their life and official administration?" was called. The reports of the preachers of the Hattiesburg District were made on the blackboard, represented by the Presiding Elder, their names were called one by one, and they were passed in examination of character, as follows: M. W. Porter, J. M. Lewis, R. T. Pickett, J. T. Leggett, C. M. Crossley, J. E. Williams, J. H. Jolly, J. W. Thompson, J. L. Greenway, J. C. Ellis, C. C. Griffin, S. C. Moody, H. R. McKee, W. M. Williams, A. W. O'Bryant, H. S. Westbrook, P. H. Howse, H. Mellard, H. J. Maddox, A. S. Byrd, D. E. Kelly.

The reports of the preachers of the Seashore District were made on the blackboard, represented by the Presiding Elder, their names were called one by one and they were passed in examination of character, as follows: H. W. Featherstun, M. B. Sharbrough, W. J. Walters, E. J. Coker, L. A. Darsey, L. L. Roberts, W. L. Linfield, H. C. Castles, E. L. Alford, J. M. Corley, J. E. Gray, J. H. Grice, B. E. Meigs, J. H. Moore, A. M. Broadfoot, D. W. Ulmer, W. W. Moore, J. F. Campbell, H. W. Van Hook and G. S. Harmon.

Names Referred—At their own request, the names of H. W. Featherstun and J. C. Ellis were referred to the Committee on Conference Relations for the Superannuate Relation.

The following report was read and adopted:

Report—Committee on Methodist Headquarters

To the Bishop and Members of the Mississippi Annual Conference:

Dear Brethren:—We, your committee, appointed to consider the Memorial of the Jackson Preachers' Association; requesting the location of "Methodist Headquarters" at Jackson, beg leave to submit the following report:

(1) We concur in the general idea of providing joint offices at Jackson for the Connectional Boards of our Conference viz: Missions, Education, Church Extension, S. S. Board, Epworth League, Lay Activities, Joint Board of Finance and any other Conference Board of Committee desiring to co-operate.

(2) We recommend that there be a "Headquarters Committee" composed of the Chairman of each Board or Committee, desiring to co-operate.

(3) That said committee shall have full power to secure the offices, equipped with necessary incidentals and employ a secretary.

(4) That the Boards or Committees participating determine for themselves their prorata share of the expense to be incurred.

(5) We respectfully recommend that the Boards and Committees consider this matter at this session of the Conference.

W. H. LEWIS, Chairman,
J. LOYD DECELL, Secretary.

Question Eight—"Who are re-admitted?" was called. The answer was . None.

Question Forty-Two—"Where shall the next session of the Conference be held?" was called. Yazoo City and Gulfport were placed in nomination, and Gulfport was selected.

Book Hour—Bishop Ainsworth announced that he had inaugurated a new feature for the Conference—a "Book Hour". He stated that he had requested certain brethren to prepare a review—or "cut the heart"—of books of their own selection and discuss them before the Conference. A. F. Watkins reviewed "Christus Comprobator," by Bishop J. C. Ellicott; N. B. Harmon discussed "The Scriptures—God's Living Oracles": he also called attention to William Jennings Bryan's "In His Image," and Dr. Robert Dick Wilson's "Studies in the Book of Daniel" C. A. Bowen reviewed "Ambassadors of God," by Dr. S. Parkes Cadman. J. T. Leggett was to have reviewed a volume, but was absent from the Conference floor attending an important Committee meeting. Bishop Ainsworth emphasized the importance of studying and reading on the part of the preachers and advised all to read again during the year Arthur's "Tongue of Fire".

Board of Missions and Evangelists—The Board of Missions made a verbal report that provision had been made for one of the evangelists requested by the Bishop, but did not think it expedient to provide for three.

A motion was adopted that it is the sense of the Conference that the Board should make provision for three rural evangelists in line with the program outlined by the Bishop.

Rev. L. H. Estes—The Rev. L. H. Estes, of the Memphis Conference, addressed the Conference in the interests of the work of the General Hospital Board, with special reference to the organization of "Golden Cross" societies.

Names Referred—Under the call of Question Twenty-One, the name of W. W. Hopper was called. It was announced that he had died during the year and his name was referred to the Committee on Memoirs.

The name of W. B. Waldrop was called and referred to the Committee on Conference Relations for the Supernumerary Relation.

Memorial Session—A motion was adopted that when we adjourn we adjourn to meet in Memorial Session on Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

The following Quadrennial Boards and Committees, nominated by the Presiding Elders, were elected by the Conference.

By special request J. A. Wells and W. W. Nelson sang "Saved By Grace."

The report of the Committee on Memoirs was adopted by a rising vote.

On motion the Conference adjourned to meet at 8:30 o'clock Monday morning. The benediction was pronounced by M. L. Burton.

FIFTH DAY

Crystal Springs, Mississippi, December 4, 1922.

Opening—The Conference was called to order at 9 o'clock a. m., Bishop Ainsworth in the Chair.

Devotions—Hymn 349 was sung, Psalm 23 was read in concert, and B. F. Lewis led the Conference in prayer.

Minutes—The Minutes of the Third Day, Afternoon Session, and of the Fourth Day, Memorial Session, were read and approved.

Question Eighteen—"What traveling preachers and what local preachers have been ordained deacons?" was called, and answered by the following certificate:

Certificate of Ordination of Deacons.

I, William N. Ainsworth, one of the Bishops of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, hereby certify that on Sunday morning, December 3, 1922, in the Methodist Church at Crystal Springs, Mississippi, I ordained deacons as follows:

Traveling Preachers, John Carl Jackson, Lemuel John Snelgrove, Martin Luther McCormick and Thomas Commander Cooper.

Local Preachers: None.

WILLIAM N. AINSWORTH.

Question Twenty—"What traveling preachers and what local preachers have been ordained elders?" was called, and answered by the following certificate:

Certificate of Ordination of Elders

I, William N. Ainsworth, one of the Bishops of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, hereby certify that on Sunday evening, December 3, 1922, in the Methodist Church at Crystal Springs, Mississippi, assisted by Reverends J. R. Jones, N. B. Harmon, and H. A. Gatlin, I ordained as an elder, James Benjamin Stringer, a traveling preacher. At the same time Albert Jackson Leggett, an elder from the Methodist Protestant Church, assumed the vows of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, without the re-imposition of hands.

Local preachers: None.

WILLIAM N. AINSWORTH.

Question Nine—"Who are received by transfer from other Conferences?" was called. The Bishop announced the name of Percy Vaughan, an elder, from the Little Rock Conference.

Question Thirteen—"Who are transferred to other Conferences?" was called. The Bishop announced the names of R. T. Pickett, an elder, to the Louisiana Conference; R. T. Hollingsworth, in the Class of the First Year, to the North Mississippi Conference, and J. W. Chisholm, an elder, to the West Texas Conference.

The following report was read and adopted:

Question Eleven—"Who are located?" was called. At his own request, J. S. Duke was granted an honorable location.

Question Twenty-One—was resumed. The names of the preachers of the Brookhaven District were called, their reports were made on the blackboard, represented by the Presiding Elder, and they were passed in examination of character, as follows: W. W. Nelson, S. B. Watkins, J. T. Weems, W. H. Lewis, W. B. Jones, H. L. Norton, W. W. Murray, J. T. Abney, W. H. Saunders, C. P. Jones, G. H. Thompson, J. A. Wells, A. S. Oliver, W. F. Baggett, R. A. Allums, H. E. Raley, E. D. Simpson, J. L. Carter, W. A. Terry, F. B. Ormond, J. E. J. Ferguson, I. W. Cooper, J. V. Bennett, W. T. Griffin, and W. N. Thomas.

Reports Discussed—Bishop Ainsworth gave a resume of the reports as made from each District, and addressed the Conference relative to a systematic program for the work of the coming year.

Question Twelve—"Who have withdrawn or been expelled?" was called, and it was announced that M. N. Hildebrand had withdrawn from the ministry and membership of the Church. By vote the Conference confirmed the withdrawal.

Question Forty-One—"Who is elected Conference Lay Leader, and what is the report of the Board of Lay Activities?" was called. J. M. Sullivan was elected Conference Lay Leader, and the following report of the Board on Lay Activities was read and adopted:

Report—Board of Lay Activities.

To the Bishop and Members of the Mississippi Annual Conference:

Dear Brethren:—In compliance with the instructions of our Discipline your Lay Leader begs to submit the following report for the Board of Lay Activities.

It is with profound gratitude to God that we note an unprecedented response of our men to the appeals of the Gospel and an appreciation of the opportunities offered by the church for spiritual development and Christian service. While we recognize the greatness of the achievements of other denominational bodies, we rejoice with religious pride in the glorious history of our beloved Methodism, and the results with which God has so wonderfully blessed the plans and labors of those who have devoted themselves to the work of our great church. There has been an awakening particularly with reference to attendance on Bible classes, the habit of prayer, and personal evangelism. Just at this time there seems to be a very great opportunity for progress and achievement in the hearty co-operation of preachers and laymen in putting into execution the splendid plans and provisions for Lay Activities as set forth in chapter 20 of our Discipline and in the Manual of Lay Activities recently issued under the authority of the General Board of Lay Activities.

In view of the action of our last General Conference in providing a more definite and enlarged scope of work for the lay members of the church, we should be stirred to a deeper sense of responsibility and more willing devotion of time, effort and material resources to the affairs and progress of the Kingdom of God.

To the presiding elders and pastors we would make an earnest appeal for the wisdom and inspiration of your leadership and council and your willing co-operation in putting into effect all the provisions of chapter 20 of the Discipline.

We note with emphasis that the Presiding Elder is now a member of his District Board of Lay Activities and that each pastor is a member of his Church or Circuit Board and that the work of these Boards co-ordinated and correlated with every other Board of the Church, and that it is the prescribed duty of these Boards of Lay Activities "to consider, promote and execute plans for larger activities of laymen in all the work of the Annual Conference and to co-operate with all other Conference Boards in executing their plans for larger service in the work of the Church." It is our desire to aid the ministry.

In promoting evangelism, especially in providing services for congregations who would otherwise be without service on the Sabbath, and new territory to be cultivated.

In emphasizing the importance of the family altar and the public prayer meeting.

In aiding in all the work of the Sunday School.

In educating our people to the importance and necessity for more adequate provision for the support of the ministry.

In administering the business affairs of the Church with definite determination that the collection of every assessment in every church should be brought to one hundred percent and our efforts directed enthusiastically to that end.

In the offer of our services through the proper committees to see that the amounts pledged during the Centenary and Educational Campaigns are collected in full, as well as counting it a sacred privilege to aid in every way possible to secure the full amount assigned for the support of our beloved superannuates. May we not with one voice proclaim "These movements shall not pass out of our program, except in glorious completion."

In encouraging stewardship and the practice of tithing as the guarantee of achievements and blessings.

In promoting the circulation of our Conference and General Organs.

In supporting our educational institutions.

In carrying out plans for larger social service.

We would urge that each District, Charge and Church Leader observe diligently the requirement that a report be made quarterly of the work being done, and it is desirable that every leader and preacher make it convenient, as soon as possible, to read carefully the entire Manual of Lay Activities.

A meeting of the Conference Board was held early in the year, and it is necessary that such a meeting be held as soon as possible after the session of this Conference and at such time that the Presiding Elders may be present. We would urge the attendance of as many laymen as possible on the great Conference to be held in Jackson on January 16th and 17th, and the Triennial Conference to be held at Lake Junaluska, North Carolina, on August 10th to 15th, 1923.

Realizing that many of the demands and plans for our work cannot be executed or realized without some financial provision for correspondence, visitation, and group consultation and deliberation, your Board of Lay Activities requests that this Annual Conference, in accord with the action of other Conferences already held, appropriate the amount of $1,000.00 for the use of Conference and District Lay Leaders in the carrying on of their work.

Brethren, whether we are at the dawn of a new day, as some express it, or not, we are certainly facing the greatest responsibilities of our lives, are in a position to see as never before the needs of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, and that the fields are white unto harvest while the laborers are not sufficient, funds are inadequate and the consecrated zeal of the laymen is not commensurate with the largeness of the work to which we are called.

Let us not waste time seeking and advertising the faults and imperfections of our brethren and institutions, but, while neither blind nor indifferent to views and measures that are unsound and unsafe, let us cultivate the habit of recognizing and expressing our appreciation of the effective qualities and true worth of our brethren of the ministry and fellow lay members, as well as the great institutions of the church. It is of the utmost importance that we discountenance and discourage a spirit of personal criticism and that we demonstrate to our brethren of the ministry that we are in love and charity with our brethren and anxious to participate in a co-operative, intelligent and zealous spirit, in all the enterprises of the church, and count it a glorious privilege to be called on by our pastors for such participation in the evangelization of the world.

We commend the practice of daily prayer and Bible study with an undisturbed adherence to the faith of our fathers. Your Board has considered the declaration of our General Conference of 1922 in regard to the doctrinal standards of the church and we heartily agree that our standards of Doctrine are "amply set forth in our Articles of Religion and in the Apostle's Creed.

We also wish to endorse the splendid resolutions from the General Board of Lay Activities adopted at their meeting in August, 1922, as follows:

"The Bible should be the basis of all religious teachings and no book or literature of any kind which discredits or is in conflict therewith should be used in our Sunday Schools, Church schools, or other Church organizations.

"We have the assurance that 'All Scripture is by inspiration,' and no part thereof should be subtracted from, added to, supplanted or modified to conform to the mere opinions or thoughts of men.

“‘Man cannot by reasoning find out God.’

“The Bible is the true Science of Life and the key that unlocks its mysteries is FAITH.”

Respectfully submitted,

J. M. SULLIVAN,

Conference Lay Leader.

Request for Publication of Report—A motion was adopted that the Editor of the New Orleans Christian Advocate be requested to publish the report of the Board on Lay Activities in the Advocate.

Editor Advocate Introduced—Rev. H. T. Carley, D. D., Editor of the New Orleans Christian Advocate addressed the Conference relative to the Advocate.

J. T. Leggett in the Chair—The Bishop asked the Presiding Elders to meet him in an adjoining room and requested J. T. Leggett to take the Chair.

The following report was read. O. S. Lewis emphasized the worth of the tracts published by the Board of Managers of Tracts and Christian Literature. The report was adopted:

Report—Board of Christian Literature.

To the Bishop and Members of the Mississippi Annual Conference:

Dear Brethren:—We, your Board of Christian Literature submit the following report:

We feel that the time has come for increased activity in getting our people to read Christian Literature and therefore urge our pastors as early in the year as possible, to press the claims of our Conference and General Organs and the Missionary Voice.

On account of the enlarged program and increased activities in all departments of our great church, we feel our people should be better informed.

We commend the editors and publishers of the Nashville Christian Advocate, the New Orleans Christian Advocate, the Missionary Voice, The Epworth Era, the Methodist Quarterly Review and our Sunday School Literature for their most excellent work during the past year and pledge our support and co-operation.

We call attention to the work of the Board of Managers of Tracts and Evangelical literature and urge upon our pastors the importance of using this literature among their people. Other denominations are flooding the country with such literature and through this agency are unsettling many of our people.

Brethren, let us make the most of our opportunities along this line

In order that the New Orleans Christian Advocate might be more widely circulated we recommend that efforts be made to reduce the price of the paper.

We recommend the election of Revs. J. T. Leggett, W. H. Saunders and E. K. Means, as members of the Publishing Committee of the New Orleans Christian Advocate.

We are glad to note that the financial situation of the New Orleans Advocate is better than a year ago.

We recommend the acceptance of the same assessment—viz., $1,308.00 for the New Orleans Christian Advocate.

J. S. PURCELL.
S. F. HARKEY.
E. H. COOLEY.
O. S. LEWIS.

The following resolution was offered but was not adopted.

Resolution—Location of Centenary Pledges

Whereas, it is vitally important that the full amount of the Centenary Pledge be paid promptly and in full, and, whereas, we believe that the present method of collecting the individual pledge, in the case of a transfer of membership, is measurably unsuccessful and tends to delay payment; therefore be it resolved by the Mississippi Annual Conference held at Crystal Springs, Dec. 2, 1922, that we recommend to the Centenary Commission that they adopt a rule whereby a transfer of membership from a charge will carry with such removal any unpaid balance of said pledge and the charge sustaining such loss shall be credited with the amount of the unpaid pledge and the charge gaining membership shall be charged with amount of same.

Report No. 1 Board of Education

To the Bishop and Members of the Mississippi Annual Conference:

Dear Brethren:—Your Board of Education finds the following information concerning your institutions of learning gathered from the reports of them referred to it by the Conference. This information is very gratifying and encouraging.

Millsaps.

Millsaps College began its thirty-first session on the 15th of September 1922, with the largest college enrollment in the history of the institution. With the close of last year the total matriculation was 309 college students and 80 preparatory students. The usual enrollment of the law school, if this department had been continued, would have carried us well beyond 400 as a total matriculation. This session the College opens with about 320 college students to date. The average increase after the first two months justifies us in the expectation of going beyond 350.

At the annual meeting of the Board of Trustees last June the preparatory department was discontinued, the judgment of the Board being that the time had come for the concentration of the full force of the institution upon students who were prepared to enter the college classes proper. This step had been in contemplation for some time and was but the logical development to be seen in all cases of growing A grade colleges when the matriculation in the college classes has made it necessary to use all available dormitory space for this section of the student body.

The increase in the number of freshmen last session and this session has made it necessary to subdivide into a number of sections some of the classes, and as a result it has been necessary to increase the faculty. An assistant professor has been given to Dr. Sullivan in the Department of Chemistry, while Professor G. W. Huddleston, long and favorably known as a member of the faculty of the Preparatory School, has been elected Associate Professor of Latin. The Freshman History class, numbering 205, made it necessary to employ an assistant in History and we are fortunate in securing the services of Mr. Francis S. Harmon, a Bachelor and Master of Arts from the University of Virginia, and a graduate in law from Harvard University.

The Department of Religious Education was strengthened by the election of Professor John Lambuth Ferguson, an A. B. and B. D. graduate of Emory University, and a student for one term each in the University of Edinburg and the University of Chicago, provision for both professors in this department having been made by the generous gift of Brother W. S. F. Tatum of Hattiesburg. In Religious Education the entire Freshman and Sophomore classes are required to take two hours each in the study of the Bible, while more advanced classes among the students are offered as elective in the teacher training and other branches of Christian Education and the commendable activities of the Young Men's Christian Association, The Young Women's Christian Association, the Preachers' League, and the Student Volunteer Association. These are giving additional emphasis to Bible study, Christian culture, and training for practical Christian work. It is our desire and expectation during the winter to conduct a series of revival services among the students.

There are in attendance this session thirty three young preachers and twenty-eight sons and daughters of preachers.

The buildings and grounds are more attractive and in better order than they have been heretofore, except that the Library, and in a lesser degree the Science Hall, are showing some weakness in their foundations.

Whitworth College.

President Cooper reports as follows:

In all respects, Whitworth College is having one of the most successful sessions in its history. The enrollment, to date, including pupils taught by special teachers, is 290. Before the close of the session, the registration bids fair to exceed that of any previous session. Our officers and teachers number twenty-six. The health of the student body has been excellent.

Seashore Campground School.

This School has been chartered as the joint property of the Mississippi, Louisiana and Alabama Conference and has been put into possession of that magnificent property known as the Seashore Campground, a frontage on the Gulf of Mexico of 1400 feet, and is worth at least $144,000.00.

There is one provision in this charter so strikingly commendable that your Board feels constrained to recite in this connection. It is to the effect that "nothing shall be practiced, taught or inculcated that is antagonistic to the tenets, principles and truths of the Christian Religion as accepted, taught and enunciated by the Methodist Episcopal Church South."

Plans for extensive new buildings have been made and the outlook for the school was never so promising as it is now.

The uncertain conditions which prevailed at the opening of the term affected somewhat the present matriculation, nevertheless there are thirty-seven boarding pupils and thirty-three local pupils.

Mississippi Conference Training School.

At the last session of this Conference there was passed a resolution directing the trustees of this school to re-open, if practical. On January 25, 1922, there came an opinion from the Attorney General's office, to the effect that an arrangement might be made by which the public school at Montrose could be blended with this school. So George T. Neill was elected President and Miss Eunice Alexander as High School teacher.

After two years of suspension, the school opened on September the 5th, 1922.

There are 56 pupils. Eleven of these are boarding pupils, one studying for the ministry. The Pastor of the Montrose charge is teacher of the Bible.

Seashore Divinity School.

We are glad to be able again to report a most delightful and helpful session of Seashore Divinity School. While the attendance was not quite up to the average, the spirit of good fellowship and the hearty and universal appreciation of the services rendered by lecturers and faculty made the Fourteenth Session the best of them all. Such was the opinion expressed by many in attendance.

The lecturers were chosen from our own Southern Methodist leaders. Rev. W. A. Shelton, D.D., of our Emory University, delighted every one by his instructive and eloquent addresses and won all hearts by his delightful personality. Bishop W. A. Candler left on all hearts and lives impressions for good that will never be effaced.

The work of the Conference Undergraduate Classes, under the Dean, Dr. H. H. McNeil and his Faculty of instructors, was at the high water mark in efficiency and the young men taking the courses of study were greatly helped and delighted. We believe that every Undergraduate in these three Conferences would be greatly benefited by taking advantage of the opportunities offered by Seashore Divinity School.

Port Gibson Female College.

The College is being run this year strictly as a Junior College for girls. It admits no boys either as day or boarding pupils. We meet every requirement for a Junior College as prescribed by the Board of Education of the Church.

The session of the College just opened gives promise of fair success. The enrollment to date this session is 59 which is larger than last year. The college girls this year are very co-operative with the spirit of Christian Education. Every girl is a Christian and an active member of the church.

Port Gibson Female College has a splendid field for patronage extending far to the South, South-west, West and North. If this field is properly worked and the cause of Christian Education properly placed before the people there is no reason why the school may not be filled to its capacity with girls who really desire a Christian Education.

INMAN W. COOPER,

Chairman,

H. WALTER FEATHERSTUN,

Secretary.

The following report was read:

Report No. 2 Board of Education

To the Bishop and Members of the Mississippi Annual Conference:

Dear Brethren:—We have been asked by the General Board of Education to adopt the following:

1. Pledge the Conference to the hearty and earnest support of the plans of the General Conference Board of Education in carrying on the Christian Education Movement.

2. Pledge the Conference to hearty co-operation with the General Conference Board of Education in prosecuting in your Conference the work of Religious Education, and specially in developing "a complete program of moral and religious training in the primary, grammar, and high school grades of the public schools, and in providing for optional courses in religious and moral subjects to be offered in the colleges and universities of the State."

3. Appoint a representative of the Board of Education of your Conference as a member of the Methodist Educational Association for the current year and provide funds for his traveling expenses to the annual meeting of the Association. This representative may or may not be your Conference Secretary of Education.

4. Recommend a suitable person to be appointed by the bishop as Secretary of Education for your Conference.

Your Board asks that you adopt these suggestions, and we name Rev. J. M. Morse as Conference Secretary of Education, asking that this recommendation be ratified by the Conference and that the appointment be made by the Bishop; that Brother Morse be appointed to represent our Conference in the Methodist Educational Association as set forth in item 3 above.

The last General Conference committed the Church to an advanced position relative to Religious Education. A new paragraph was added to the Discipline, a part of which is as follows:

"The General Conference Board of Education shall seek, in closest possible co-operation with the Annual Conference Boards of Education, to promote religious education in the homes of the people, in the institutions of the Church, in tax-supported and independent institutions, including public schools. * * * "

At its recent session, the General Conference Board of Education took the following significant action:

"Resolved, That this Board of Education places upon record its deliberate and positive conviction that moral and religious instruction should be given in every department of the public school system of our country—primary, grammar, and high school grades, colleges and universities; such instruction to be given without cost to the State, if necessary, in the lower grades, and to be offered as optional courses in colleges and universities; such optional courses, when completed, to be given equal credit with other courses, of equal intellectual and cultural value."

The Board further authorized the development of "a definite program for moral and religious training in the primary, grammar, and high school grades of our public schools." The General Conference further provided that the office of the General Board shall serve "as a medium of communication between Directors of Religious Education desiring positions and Churches which need their services."

Your Conference Board of Education, in considering the communication from the General Conference Board of Education, think that the new paragraph of the Discipline and the resolution of the General Conference Board of Education should receive especial attention, both of which point out the necessity of religious instruction in every department of the public school system of our country—primary, grammar and high school grades, colleges and universities.

Your Conference Board of Education at the last session of this conference urged that pastoral care be provided for Methodist Colleges and the State Colleges of the State and that the preachers of this Conference make surveys of the public schools within their charges and, as far as practicable, find out that percentage of the public school teachers are active Christians, and what the children in the public schools are thinking, especially of Christ.

Dr. R. H. Bennett, in his address to this Conference, made a strong plea for the Methodist Colleges and Universities and urged us not only to contribute to their support, but to study their work and to help them by constructive criticism.

Your Board concurs fully in these ideas and feels that the most helpful thing the church can do is to try to have the students we send to College to arrive at the College religiously sound.

Therefore, believing that it is impracticable for the church to undertake a system of primary, grammar and high schools in opposition to the present tax-supported system, we urge upon our preachers and laymen the necessity of making strenuous efforts to keep our public schools religiously sound.

We further urge our Methodist people, both lay and clergy, to co-operate with all other Christian people and keep our public schools religiously sound both in teaching personnel and in text books.

Endowment for Whitworth.

In view of the decision of the Educational Commission appointed by the General Conference that no college would be recognized after 1924, without an endowment of $250,000.00, we recommend that this Conference take such action as may be necessary to secure an endowment of $250,000.00 for Whitworth College. We further pledge the help of this Board to the Board of Trustees in such plans as they may make to get the matter before the people.

Bonds to Help the Camp Ground School.

The Trustees of the Camp Ground School ask that this Conference join with the other patronizing conferences in consenting to issuing of bonds to run for twenty years to the amount of $40,000.00 with which to make necessary improvements. Your Board recommends that the request be granted.

Confirmations.

Trustees for Camp Ground School: H. M. Ellis for one year, I. W. Cooper for one year, J. T. Leggett for two years, W. T. Bolton for two years, H. S. Weston for three years and B. Z. Welch for three years.

Increased Assessments Advocated By Laymen—The Bishop stated that all criticism regarding increased assessments should be hushed when it is known that the Laymen of the General Conference at Hot Springs advocated the increase, and he further stated that there should always be advance movements.

The following report was read and adopted:

Report No. 3 Board of Missions

To the Bishop and Members of the Mississippi Annual Conference.

Dear Brethren:—We your Board beg leave to report that it is the judgment of this Board that the following plan is not the best, but yielding to the expressed wishes of the Conference, we appropriate the sum of $3,200.00, to be used in the employment of three Conference Missionary Evangelists, and that the foregoing sum be drawn from the Centenary reserve fund.

M. M. BLACK, President,
J. EARLY GRAY, Secretary.

The following report was read and adopted:

Report No. 4 Board of Missions

To the Bishop and Members of the Mississippi Annual Conference:

Dear Brethren:—Your Board of Missions begs leave to report as follows:

We have received and read the communication from the Secretary of the General Board of Missions, which tells us of unprecedented successes which have attended our activities in all our fields, both at home and abroad.

We note with pleasure the great awakening throughout our fields of labor, evidenced by the great in-gathering of souls.

The information coming to us from our Foreign as well as in our Homeland is to the effect that our religion is forcing its influence upon the attention, in a most vital way, the nations of the earth.

The presence of Dr. C. G. Hounshell and Bishop W. B. Beauchamp has been a means of great blessing to the entire Conference, bringing burning messages and reporting the wonderful achievements in our Foreign field.

We most heartily endorse the work of Mr. W. D. Hawkins, our Missionary Secretary, and rejoice that he has held our Conference well to the front in the collection of Centenary subscriptions. We have unanimously elected Mr. Hawkins as Missionary Secretary for the ensuing year.

We report that on our regular assessments for Conference Missions we have collected this year $7,561.26, which is about 65 per cent of our total assessment.

We are glad to report that the employment of Charles Asaf as a missionary to the Syrians within our Conference has proven a wise investment and we have employed him to continue the work.

The Committee on Evangelism reports successful work done by the Conference Evangelists. We nominate D. E. Kelley, J. V. Bennett, W. T. Griffin, G. S. Harmon and J. M. Smith for reappointment and Rolfe Hunt for appointment on Conference Evangelists.

We recommend the appointment of Rev. John L. Sutton as Superintendent of the Mississippi Children's Home-finding Society, located at Jackson, Miss.

We most heartily commend the splendid work of J. L. Neill as Superintendent of our Mission School of Prague in Czecho-Slovakia and we recommend his reappointment to that work.

We heartily recommend J. M. Smith to the General Committee on Evangelism as a General Evangelist.

M. M. BLACK, President.
J. EARLY GRAY, Secretary.

Message to J. L. Neill—A motion was adopted that the Secretary of the Conference be requested to convey to J. L. Neill, superintendent of our work in Czecho-Slovakia and a member of this Conference, affectionate greetings and to assure him of the prayers and good will of the Conference in the ripe field of opportunity in which he is laboring.

The following report was read and adopted:

There is no increase in the assessment for 1923. The amount of assessment being $20,000.00—as for 1922—your Board would emphasize the necessity of early collections for this worthy cause.

Your Board received a request from the General Board at St. Louis to advance the sum of $442.00 to be used in advertising the special effort for raising the General Superannuate Endowment Fund, which amount is to be refunded your Board, which request was granted.

Respectfully,

J M. MORSE, President.

Report Trustees Conference Endowment Fund

To the Members of the Mississippi Annual Conference:

Dear Brethren:—We, the Trustees of the Mississippi Conference Endowment Fund, respectfully submit the following report:

Amount invested in notes and bonds $28,114.00
Amount of cash on hand 849.35

Total cash assets 28,963.35
Total cash assets last year 27,888.04

Increase in funds during the year 1,075.31
Total real estate holdings 700.00

Grand total $29,663.35

Bequests, Gifts and Memorials.

It will be noticed that while there has been an increase in the cash assets there has been a decrease in the grand total. This is caused by the sale of the R. B. Downer Home for which we realized but $800.00, because of depreciation in real estate values, while it has been valued at $2,000.00.

Report —Board of Church Extension

To the Bishop and Members of the Mississippi Annual Conference:

Dear Brethren:—Your Board of Church Extension begs leave to submit the following report:

This report brings us to the close of the present Quadrennium. Our chief progress during these four years has been made in increasing our Conference Loan Fund, which has grown from $4,550.00 in 1918 to $8,150.00 at the close of 1922.

The receipts from assessments has not been as large during this quadrennium as they were during the preceding one, probably due to the payment on Centenary Pledges.

Applications.

We have had before us applications from sixteen churches and four parsonages, asking aid in donations to the amount of $5,000.00 and in loans to the amount of $1,650.00.

We had for donation purposes only $2,729.66 and for loans $2,145.00.

After careful and prayerful consideration of all the applications before us we have made the following grants at this Conference:

Churches
Name	Donation	Loan.
Osyka	$200.00	$500.00
Laurel, West End	200.00
Pearl Chapel		200.00
Refuge	100.00
Harrisville	200.00
Briggs Chapel	100.00
Kate Fields Memorial	250.00
Harperville	300.00
East End, Meridian 2nd Installment	360.00
DeSoto	200.00
Back Bay, Biloxi	100.00
Crystal Springs, a special	200.00 (Refund)
Braxton	125.00

Parsonages

Donation—

Lauderdale	$200.00
Bayou Pierre	200.00

Loans—

Bayou Pierre	200.00
Cleveland	450.00

We recommend the placing of a special of $225.00 on each Presiding Elder's District during the next three years for the Washington City Church and that the Board for next Quadrennium elect a man to visit the District Conference and raise said sum.

Columbus Special.

Two years ago this Board promised $1,250.00 toward the building of an adequate church at Columbus, Miss. Said sum to be paid in five annual installments of $250.00. The first installment was paid in full and $108.00 this year.

We recommend that the new Board elect a man to raise this special from the Organized Bible Classes or Sunday Schools of the Conference during the next three years.

Architecture and Insurance.

We would urge all our Pastors and Building Committees to confer with Dr. Baylor, of Louisville, Ky., relative to church plans, before undertaking any new building. Also we would call your attention to the fact that the Church Extension Board will be prepared to insure church property after the 1st of January, 1923.

The amount paid on the pledge of $5,000.00 to the Washington City Church by the Conference during the ten years past has been $1,116.23 leaving a balance due on that pledge of $3,883.77. Paid $100.00 this year.

Our Conference Loan Fund now stands as follows:

Kingston Laurel	$ 600.00
Camden	250.00
Laurel, West End	294.00
Pleasant Hill	600.00
Lucedale	1,000.00
Anguilla, Kate Fields Memorial	750.00
Forest Hill	300.00
Hickory	1,200.00

The New Board has met and organized and elected Rev. H. A. Gatlin to look after the raising of the Washington City Special and Rev. A. S. Oliver to raise the special for the Columbus Church.

Respectfully submitted,

W. M. WILLIAMS, Chairman,
L. E. ALFORD, Secretary.

Pending the adoption of the report W. M. Williams urged the payment of the assessment which the Conference assumed several years ago for the Representative Church in Washington City.

The report was adopted.

The following report was read and adopted:

Report of the Sunday School Board

To the Bishop and Members of the Mississippi Annual Conference.

Dear Brethren:—Your Sunday School Board is glad to report to you that the past year has been the most successful of the quadrennium. Our efficient Secretaries, Rev. John C. Chambers and Brother O. C. Hull, have been indefatigable in labor. New Sunday Schools have been organized, standards of efficiency attained, circuit institutes held, standard Teacher Training Schools for local churches, District and Conference conducted, large numbers of credits given. Many of our Sunday School pupils have joined the church on profession of faith and large numbers have pledged themselves for definite Christian service.

We do not feel it would be fair to our faithful Field Secretary, nor would it be just to the Conference not to place before you a summary of the work of this Board during the past quadrennium.

During this period of time our Secretaries have visited 718 different Sunday Schools and addressed nearly one hundred thirty thousand persons. Eight meetings for negroes have been held. One hundred and four Schools have been properly graded, 110 have attained the third rank standard of efficiency and 44 have introduced the Graded Literature, 34 Home Departments 85 Worker's Councils, 139 Cradle Rolls, 163 Wesley Bible Classes and 6 Epworth Leagues have been organized. Sixty new Sunday Schools have been organized, 108 pupils have joined the church on profession of faith and 168 persons have pledged themselves for some definite phase of Christian service.

These are only a few of the things accomplished. The goal for the next twelve months looks to more aggressive work in every department of our Sunday School work. Our greatest drawback is lack of sufficient funds with which to finance this important work.

We would like to urge upon every pastor the observance of Sunday School Day and a prompt remittance of the collection to our Conference Treasurer.

We have elected Rev. John C. Chambers as Field Secretary for the ensuing year. He will have associated with him Brother O. C. Hull, as his assistant. We request the appointment of Brother Chambers as Sunday School Field Secretary.

H. F. TOLLE, Chairman.

Mortmain Statutes—A. F. Watkins addressed the Conference relative to the Mortmain Statutes of the State of Mississippi, and urged the members of the Conference to interest themselves in the matter, so that the session of the State legislature in 1924 may be urged to pass down an Amendment to the Constitution asking for the abrogation of these unrighteous and hurtful laws.

The following report was read and adopted:

Report of the Epworth League Board

To the Bishop and Members of the Mississippi Annual Conference:

Dear Brethren:—It is a source of gratitude to God that the Epworth League is making very encouraging progress. There seems to be more interest in this work at this time, than there has been at any former period. It is timely that this interest be shown in this work, for it is foundation work. When we interest and train our young people in religious work we are laying the foundation for a greater activity for the future church. When a pastor is interesting the children of his church in Junior League Work, he is preparing members for his Senior League, and the Senior League is training workers for active membership in the church. The Epworth Leagues of the Mississippi Conference are seventh in our church in the amount paid to the Centenary for African Special. We are third in the amount paid per member. We are first in amount paid on quota. The Epworth Leagues of our Conference were asked for $7,600.00 for the five years and we had paid at the end of the third year $8,477.00. The Leagues are urged to observe Anniversary Day or Young People's Day wherever possible. We call attention to the Epworth Era as a splendid religious monthly that ought to go into every Methodist Home.

The Epworth League Assembly held in Brookhaven last June, was a great success. The attendance was real good, and the program rendered was educational and inspirational from beginning to end. A similar assembly will be held this next conference year from about June 4th to 11th and the pastors are urged to attend and see that some of their young people attend.

The Conference League Board very heartily endorses the assembly. Let there be Missionary Classes organized in every League.

Respectfully submitted,

W. D. HAWKINS, Chairman.

W. A. TERRY, Secretary.

The following report was read and adopted:

Report—American Bible Society Board

To the Bishop and Members of the Mississippi Annual Conference:

Dear Brethren:—We beg leave to submit the following report:

We believe the Bible to be the inspired word of God: from it we learn how we came to be: without it the evolutionist would seem to have the advantage of us: but, in the blessed book, called the Holy Bible, we read: "The first man Adam was made a living Soul, the last Adam was made a quickening Spirit." Then, for the answer, why the second Adam? we look back to the third Chapter of Genesis: there we find the first Adam brought sin and death upon all men. Hence the importance of the second Adam, who took our death upon himself and offers to give us life. We, therefore, urge a careful distribution of Bibles wherever needed.

On motion Rev. W. W. Moore was recommended to assist the American Bible Society in the distribution of Bibles.

We urgently recommend that the American Bible Society be requested to furnish Rev. W. W. Moore the remaining seventy-five, of the one hundred, Bibles for which he asked last year, for use in Back Bay Mission.

We recommend that Rev. M. L. Burton be granted the privilege of using $100.00 for Bibles to be distributed among the Syrians.

The Sunday School Board, with which we entered into an agreement last year reports a distribution of 1,500 leaflets, 200 Gospels of John, and 10 New Testaments.

Respectfully submitted,

P. H. HOWSE, President.

M. R. JONES, Secretary.

The following report was read and adopted:

Report—Board of Temperance and Social Service

To the Bishop and Members of the Mississippi Annual Conference:

Dear Brethren:—We call attention to the crowded condition and poorly housed laborers in some of the saw mill towns, but especially in the factory districts of our coast. As citizens we should urge our state to place sane requirements upon those who own and operate these mills and factories. We would urge our State and County officers to demand such conditions as will be both inviting and sanitary. Many of the flats in which these people are housed are not so good as the barns in which the stock have their abiding place.

We also recommend that our preachers be more active in selecting and using their Social Service Committees, recognizing the fact that this committee has a duty to the individual in welcoming strangers, encouraging the members to attend the meetings of the church, and to see that a spirit of Christian fellowship prevails in the membership, and further to look after the needy and sick, and render both spiritual and material aid when necessary.

The Social Service Committee has a duty to the church in that it follows the missionary teaching of our Christ in looking after the church's duty to the individual, and it has a duty to the community in that it links up the church as an institution to the life of the community. While this committee is the active agent of the membership of the church, it is not intended that this committee shall take from any individual member the responsibility or opportunity for real Christian service.

Temperance.

There has arisen such loose ideals about the danger of strong drink and of the deadly effects of alcohol upon the human system; also we find a great laxity in law enforcement—we think there is a demand upon us to take a more decided stand against this evil.

We believe there should be a more persistent effort on the part of the Church to teach the people on the subject of temperance. We do not believe that our ministers are called upon to police the country—but we do believe we can render humanity a service by insisting on the execution of the laws of our land—our part as a church is to see that the preacher keeps the public conscience awake and insist upon law enforcement and lovingly, but firmly, and persistently urge that the officers execute the law. Our slogan as a church should be on the Social Service and Temperance—information—inspiration— and speedy reformation and advancement toward the golden rule.

Respectfully,

J. E. WILLIAMS, Chairman.

WALDO W. MOORE, Secretary.

The following report was read and adopted:

Report—Orphans' Home Committee

To the Bishop and Members of the Mississippi Annual Conference

Dear Brethren:—Your Committee on our Orphan's Home has carefully considered the report submitted by the Board of Directors and are much pleased with the showing which they make. As this report contains those details of the year's work which should go to record, we append this report as a part of ours.

We would like to call the attention of the Conference to three facts which have been suggested by this report:

1st. We would urge upon every pastor the necessity of taking a monthly offering for this great work. If every pastoral charge will do this, as well as observe Work Day, the superintendent will never be under the necessity of borrowing money to finance the institution.

2nd. We would ask the Conference to pledge itself to co-operate with the Board of Directors in any improvements and enlargements they may deem needful when they meet in the Spring.

3rd. Recognizing the growing importance of this work, we would recommend that an Orphan's Home Board be created to be nominated by the Presiding Elders and elected by this Conference for a term of four years, as are our other boards. In order that the term of office of this board may terminate with our other quadrennial boards, we recommend that our Presiding Elders nominate this Board for confirmation at the next session of this Conference to serve to the close of the present quadrennium.

We recommend the reappointment of Rev. B. F. Lewis as superintendent of the Home for the ensuing year.

We also recommend the election of Mr. M. S. Enochs and Rev. W. M. Sullivan to succeed themselves as Trustees. We also request the confirmation of Mrs. W. T. Denman as the representative of the Woman's Missionary Society on this Board.

Respectfully submitted,

W. D. DAVIS,
Chairman Committee.

Report—Board of Trustees Orphans' Home.

To the Mississippi Annual Conference M. E. Church, South, in Session at Crystal Springs, Miss., November 29th, 1922.

Your Board of Trustees take pleasure in reporting to you that the year 1922 has been both a pleasant and profitable one in our Orphan's Home in Jackson. We have maintained in that institution almost continuously for the entire year two hundred children. We have been able also during the year to find homes for a number of our larger girls, and they have left our institution. None, however, has gone out in the capacity of servants. There have been received into the Home since the first of November, 1921, 59 children and 60 have been placed in foster homes. The health of the Home has been almost perfect. We have had no contagious or infectious diseases, and our hospital has been in use only once or twice during the past twelve months.

The physical condition of our plant, while by no means satisfactory, has been kept up to the standard of previous years and is in reasonably good condition for one of its age. The necessary repairs and improvements have been maintained out of our regular funds as have been for the past few years, though there are some improvements which we deem advisable, if not necessary, namely: Our laundry should be rebuilt from the foundation, and we are greatly in need of enlarging the dining room and kitchen facilities. We have also found our chapel inadequate to our needs during the past twelve or eighteen months.

The religious condition of our Home has been very satisfactory. Within the institution itself we have Vesper services every evening which all the workers and children attend; we have Sunday School every Sunday morning at 9:00 o'clock and Epworth League services every Sunday evening followed by a short sermon; a boys' prayer meeting on Saturday night and a prayer meeting conducted by our larger girls on Friday night. On the first Sunday of each month during the past year all of our children have been taken to Capitol Street Church in a special chartered street car and on the third Sunday they all attend the Galloway Memorial Church in a similar way. These two churches paying the expense of transportation. This has meant much to us.

Our school is maintaining its high standard of last year, and as the standard of the grammar schools and high schools of the city are being raised we are raising the standard of our own school so that our children are losing nothing by being taught in our own school building. We have fifteen boys and girls going to the high school in the city, two girls at Grenada College, two at Whitworth and three at Millsaps College, all working for an A. B. degree.

The farm has been very successfully run during the year. Previously we have been very seriously hampered by having no one on the farm other than the farm Superintendent able to do heavy work. During the past year we have had on the place a most reliable and quiet colored family who have rendered such material assistance to us that our farm has done better than since we have owned it. It has not only paid all the expenses of its maintenance but has added in no small way to the reduction of the expense in our kitchen, and we are looking for a more successful year next season. The boys on our farm attend school nine months in the year, have the privilege of religious services and Sunday School facilities.

Our finances were shorter this year than at any time during the past several years and we were under necessity of borrowing $2,000.00 during the summer, the period of our smallest receipts. We felt this was better than to ask the merchants to carry us, as they are so considerate of us. But the Work Day receipts up to the present have been satisfactory, and, if all our churches will observe this day and make us a remittance and will observe Orphan's Day each month, we will be able to run without embarrassment for the next twelve months. We would like to urge the monthly observance of Orphan's Day upon all the charges in the Conference for the ensuing year.

The term of office of Rev. W. M. Sullivan and Mr. M. S. Enochs as Trustees expires with this session of the Conference and we request that these vacancies be filled. Mrs. W. T. Denman has been re-elected by the Woman's Missionary Society to represent that Society on our Board of Directors, and we would request the confirmation of this election by your body.

Rev. B. F. Lewis has been re-elected Superintendent for the ensuing year and we respectfully request his appointment to this position.

J. H. SHERARD, Chairman.

M. S. ENOCHS, Secretary.

Auditing Committee—On motion the following Auditing Committee was elected to serve during the ensuing Quadrennium: W. T. Griffin, T. B. Cottrell, W. H. Lane.

The following report was read and adopted:

Report—Auditing Committee

To the Bishop and Members of the Mississippi Annual Conference.

Dear Brethren:—We your auditing committee beg leave to submit the following report:

We have audited reports from the various charges, turned checks over to our Conference Treasurer and received his receipt for same. We would again urge the Brethren to be more prompt in handing in their reports; making separate checks for each claim, stating on this check the claims for which it is intended; also, putting their name, charge and district on each table of report. This will save hours of work and confusion for both Auditing committee and the Statistical Secretaries.

Respectfully submitted,

T. B. COTTRELL,

For Committee.

The following report was read and adopted:

Report—Committee on the State of the Church

To the Bishop and Members of the Mississippi Annual Conference.

Dear Brethren:—We your Committee on the State of the Church, would report the following:

We are gratified at the successful revivals held all over our conference, and rejoice over the large number of accessions to the church, and we recommend that we pray for a widening and deepening of the evangelistic spirit among us, and that there be such a spirit of pastoral diligence as will conserve the results by strengthening the new converts and promoting their growth in grace and knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

We rejoice that the church has been given a vision of the unparalleled opportunities for the evangelization of the world, and is marshaling her forces for the speedy accomplishment of that purpose.

There are some persons who discount the supernatural in our holy religion but who seek to make amends by employing the evangelistic note. We would therefore urge our ministry and our laymen not only to stress evangelistic effort but also to stand true to and be diligent in the teaching of the cardinal truths of our holy Christianity involving the miraculous person of our Lord Jesus Christ as well as of his teaching and of that miraculous history by which the world through the chosen people was made ready for his coming.

We rejoice in the success of the centenary movement and urge that in order to carry out the great plans of our church for the advancement of God's kingdom on earth and the salvation of souls we faithfully meet our obligations in the amounts pledged and yet unpaid. We urge upon our preachers both by example and precept to do all in their power to make our people realize the importance of meeting these obligations, not only because the church in the heathen world will suffer as a result, but because the failure to meet these pledges if one is able to do so will imperil christian character as well as discredit the church of our God.

It is with joy and thanksgiving that we see our laymen taking their rightful place in the church in their efforts to save the world for Christ, and that they are organizing in many places in a united effort to save the lost and bring them to Jesus. In so doing they are but returning to the apostolic spirit and we wish for them the return of the apostolic power. We request our preachers everywhere to organize our laymen in harmony with the plan laid down by our General Conference and lead and encourage them in operating it, which seems all the more important in our church on account of the primacy of the pastorate.

We would warn against worldliness both in the business and in the pleasures of our people. The worship of mammon is constantly intruding into the church of God in the form of the greed for gain which finds expression in our unchristian spirit and unchristian methods of business, against which we would especially warn, feeling that the christianization of business would go far toward the christianization of the world.

The Church has always had to contend against worldliness in form of sinful and questionable diversions; but in this day certain forms of amusements have been so perverted and debased as to call special warning and condemnation.

We would call our people to more earnest constant prayer, to holiness of life and conduct, and building up of the family altars, believing these will counteract the drift away from Christ which prevails to such a great and alarming extent.

M. B. SHARBROUGH, Chairman,
Mrs. H. M. ELLIS, Secretary.

The following report was read and adopted:

Report—Committee on Sabbath Observance

To the Bishop and Members of the Mississippi Annual Conference.

Dear Brethren.—Your committee on Sabbath Observance submit the following report:

We feel the time has come for a more definite and determined effort on our part to safeguard the American Sabbath.

We view with alarm the spread of Sabbath desecration in the South, where one person out of every six, six millions in all, live in communities where the "Continental Sunday" is rapidly displacing the "American Sunday."

We deplore and condemn the laxity on the part of the Christian people in keeping the Sabbath, or observing Sunday, and thus sorely wound the Lord's Day in the home of its friends.

We urge that our preachers call upon all our people to properly observe the Lord's Day and thus set an example that will make it easier to enforce our civil laws against Sabbath desecration.

We note with gratification a tendency in many of our towns and cities to more properly observe the Sabbath and heartily commend the action of many to close their garages, filling stations, meat markets and other places of business.

We feel that a more wide spread revival of religion will accomplish more of this good work and ultimately restore the Lord's Day to its proper place and use.

We approve the action of the General Conference at its meeting in Hot Springs in endorsing the work of the Lord's Day Alliance and recommend that the Board of Temperance and Social Service make arrangements for our conference to be affiliated with that organization as suggested by the General Conference.

O. S. LEWIS,
For the Committee.

The following report was read and adopted:

Report—Committee on District Conference Records

To the Bishop and Members of the Mississippi Annual Conference:

Dear Brethren:—We have examined the records for each of the Districts. All of them have been neatly and correctly kept. We congratulate the Secretaries on their faithfulness and efficiency.

Respectfully,

J. T. ABNEY, Chairman.

W. L. BLACKWELL, Secretary.

Questions Twenty-Four to Thirty-Nine were called and answered by the Statistical Secretary. (See Condensed Minutes).

The following resolutions were read and adopted by a rising vote:

Resolutions of Thanks

Whereas, we rejoice in the gracious providence of God which enables us to convene in this beautiful house of worship since we last met here in 1889, therefore be it resolved:

First, That we thank the citizens of Crystal Springs for their generous hospitality.

Second, That we thank our host, Rev. W. B. Jones, and the several committees associated with him for their kindness.

Third, That we thank our official reporter, Rev. E. H. Cunningham and the Commercial Appeal and the Times-Picayune for their full and complete reports, and also Miss Eleanor Russell for typewriting.

Fourth, That we thank the congregation of the several churches for the use of their houses of worship.

Fifth, That we thank the Rev. Arthur J. Moore, pastor of Travis Park Church, San Antonio, Texas, for the earnest and helpful sermons which he preached during the Conference.

C. F. EMERY.

Introductions—Miss Hallie Buie, our Missionary in Korea, at home on leave; Mrs. B. F. Lewis, President of the Conference Woman's Missionary Society, and Mrs. H. L. McClesky, Corresponding Secretary of the same body, were introduced to the Conference.

Minutes—The Minutes of the Session were read and approved.

Final Adjournment—A motion was adopted that the Conference adjourn sine die with the reading of the appointments. The Bishop made remarks suitable to the occasion and called

Question Forty-Three—"Where are the preachers stationed this year?"

THOMAS WALKER ADAMS

Thomas Walker Adams, son of J. W. Adams, of Virginia, and Lucy W. Gilmer, of Georgia, was born on a plantation in Madison County, Mississippi, on the eighth of February, 1850. He died at Lexington, Miss., November 27, 1922, and was buried at Brookhaven the following day.

Considering his parentage, we are not surprised to find that, for his generation, T. W. Adams was given more than the average amount of schooling. His academic work was taken at old Sharon College and his advanced instruction was given him at Emory and Henry College.

Perhaps the most eventful year of his life was 1874, for then he was licensed to preach, was married to Miss Julia E. Thompson and joined the Mississippi Conference. At this time, the territory of the Mississippi Conference included a portion of Louisiana, and Brother Adams' first pastoral charge was Franklinton, Louisiana.

During the long period of years over which his faithful, loyal and efficient service to the Mississippi Conference extended, he served, besides Franklinton, the following charges: Free Run Circuit, Dover, Benton and Midway, Logtown, Wesson, Ellisville, McComb and Magnolia, Moss Point, Hazlehurst, Brookhaven, Laurel, Lumberton, Hattiesburg Main Street, and Hattiesburg Court Street. He served a term of four years as Presiding Elder of the Natchez District, of three years Presiding Elder of the Brookhaven District and, again, a period of three years as Presiding Elder of the Vicksburg District. For two years, he served as Chaplain in the State Penitentiary. Truly a record of laborious but helpful days.

As a pastor, he was loved because of his geniality, his humor and his friendly, sympathetic heart. By nature he was social, so we find that he often visited his members. His keen, refined humor made him a welcome visitor even in the homes of outsiders. His people liked to hear him preach for his sermons were logical, original and well expressed. Indeed, he had an unusual gift of language which served him well, not only in the pulpit, but in writing. He would have made a fine editor for one of our church papers.

As a Presiding Elder, he was successful because, to the qualities we have named as pastor and preacher he added organizing ability and business sense. These latter gifts account, in part, for the fact that he was unusually successful in the management of his own financial affairs so that old age found him in independent circumstances. Just here, however, we would emphasize the fact that though he accumulated, he gave very generously to his church. His liberality was far above the average—even the average Methodist preacher.

If T. W. Adams had not been called to the ministry, he might have made a statesman, for he was broad in his vision of world affairs and wonderfully well posted on current events and all matters of general intelligence.

His breadth of vision did not prevent him from having depth of feeling. We are told that he almost worshiped his good wife who preceded him only a few months to the Better Land. Her death and that of his promising young son, Farve Adams, who also belongs to our number of the Sainted members of the Mississippi Conference—these two losses seem to have broken his joy in life, so that he prayed, "Now lettest Thou Thy servant depart in peace." He was deeply attached, too, to the three married daughters who live to carry on his Christian character and teachings.

Brother Adams was not only a Christian, he was deeply religious and spiritual. It was fitting that at his funeral one of his best loved fellow-workers should read, "He that dwelleth in the secret place of the most High, shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty." And his devotion to Methodism was second only to his Christianity. He was most heartily and thoroughly convinced of the superiority of the Southern Methodist Church—above all other churches.

Two of our friends most pronounced characteristics were his decision and his fearlessness. There was nothing negative about him. He knew what he believed and proclaimed it fearlessly. This was true not only of his religious convictions, but of every question which presented itself to his mind. By nature, he was such a worker and a fighter that all who understood him were forced to admire these elements of strength.

He was such a fearless fighter that we may feel sure that he met his last enemy, Death, with the cry, "one fight more, the best and the last! Let me taste the whole of it, fare like my peers, the heroes of old!"

REV. ROBERT HARTWELL BARR

A memoir of Rev. Robert Hartwell Barr, late of the Mississippi Conference—Affectionately Prepared by his Conference Classmate, Rev. Geo. H. Thompson.

Rev. Robert Hartwell Barr began life near Lower Peach Tree, Ala., June 24, 1849, and finished his labors and entered into the rest that remaineth for the people of God at Moss Point, Miss., December 30, 1921. He was the first-born of eight children given to his parents, Bartlett S. and Martha A. Barr. His was a good inheritance. Both grandfathers, Bartlett Barr, Sr., and Isham J. Clark, were Methodist preachers, and his uncle for whom he was named, Rev. Robert Clark, was a pioneer preacher in Montana, and a member of the Montana Conference. This was an inheritance of which Brother Barr was justly proud.

He had the good fortune of early life on the farm, and was developed in his spirit of helpfulness to others when young by helping his mother care for younger children while the father did his part in the Civil War. When the verdict of arms had been rendered, and the South had suffered the loss of all save its honor and courage, the father and son joined in battle against the biting poverty that had been thrust on them and others who had defended the right to withdraw from the Union. His school days were thus cut short in his early teens, and further efforts for knowledge were without a teacher. His mind was always thirsty for knowledge, and the open eye and the attentive ear continually watered the mental plant. His memory was developed to a very unusual degree. I have seen few men who could retain so much of a sermon or lecture as he. With a strong love for good literature, and with power to concentrate his thoughts on the matter read, and aided by his rare memory, he gathered a large fund of information.

When about 15 years old, and while attending a camp meeting near Lower Peach Tree, Ala., he was converted, and united with the Methodist Church, in whose communion and ministry he spent his life. The date that he was licensed to preach is not definitely known, but he was ordained local deacon at the Conference when he was admitted on trial. This Conference was held at Crystal Springs in December, 1889, and was presided over by Bishop Galloway, who ordained him. Nine years later in Hattiesburg, he was ordained elder by Bishop Galloway. He was the oldest member of a class of sixteen admitted on trial in 1889, being at that time in his forty-first year. The following list shows the charges served by him as pastor, and the years of this service: Hillsboro Circuit, 1890-91; Westville Circuit, 1892-93; Trenton Circuit 1894-95; Vimville Circuit, 1896-98; Mathersville Circuit, 1899-1901; Winchester Circuit, 1902; Escatawpa Circuit, 1903-1906; Americus Circuit, 1907; DeKalb Circuit, 1908-1910; North Wesson, 1911-1913; Adams Circuit, 1914-1917; Foxworth Circuit, 1918-1920.

The foregoing list of appointments shows that Brother Barr gave to the Mississippi Conference thirty-one years of service, and they were given uninterruptedly to the pastorate. He felt that his call was to preach the gospel, and to shepherd the flock over which the Holy Ghost, acting through the church, had made him overseer. His church called on him to serve some charges that are commonly called "hard charges"—hard, because of much travel and meager support. To these he went with the loyalty and courage of a soldier summoned to battle. I do not think that pipe organs, high steeples, studios, and swivel chairs had much lure for him, but humanity, hungry and thirsty for the "meat indeed" and the "drink indeed," tugged mightily at his soul. The impelling conviction was upon him that the Cross of Christ which had lifted him above the power of sin could do the same for all others. Untried modern theology could never rival in his mind and heart the theology that had transformed a world, and which had transformed his own life. He did not have time nor inclination to try it out.

You would not call Brother Barr a great preacher, but you must call him a good preacher. His sermon matter was extracted from the Bible, and it appealed to the head and heart of the hearer, and was delivered in a pleasing manner. To a mellow voice of splendid carrying qualities was added pleasing gestures. He spoke smooth-flowing English with animation, but without vehemence. His fondness for simile led him to an over-use of metaphor. He made liberal use of quotations, which were skillfully selected and accurately quoted. For him John was a better model for preaching than Isaiah, but he did not shirk sternness when he felt that it was needed. He was not a "son of thunder," but a messenger of consolation.

A large part, perhaps the larger part, of the good done by him as an itinerant Methodist preacher was done through his pastoral work. He diligently visited the people. The pastorate of large circuits, such as he served most of his ministerial life, required much travel to reach the homes of the people, but this duty was cheerfully accepted and faithfully done. Always an optimist, and breathing a buoyant, cheerful spirit, his optimism was contagious. The tenderness of his heart and the largeness of his soul put him in close touch with all who were weary and heavy-laden. His tenderness opened the hearts of the children to him, and they loved him as he loved them. The devotion of himself to God and duty carried conviction to the careless and halting with much force.

The outstanding trait in Brother Barr's life was his great brotherliness. What member of the Mississippi Conference will not sadly miss at its next session the hearty handshake, the cordial greeting, the love-beaming face that has greeted them during the last thirty-one years? Can any of us say that we ever heard him speak unkindly of any one? Is there a soul, living or dead, who ever felt that Brother Barr ever did him knowingly an unkindness? He was incapable of such an act. He loved the members of his Conference, rejoiced in their successes, and sorrowed when their failures came. We say that he was guileless; that may be, for it is born of love, and his life was made richer because he thought no evil.

At the age of twenty years Brother Barr was married to Miss Eliza Moore, a member of an Alabama family whose social and religious life was a rich asset to any community. Truly God had joined them together. At the time Brother Barr was admitted into the Mississippi Conference he owned a good farm in Neshoba County, and had provided for his family a comfortable home. Out from this home the faithful and noble wife went, like Abraham, not knowing where she was going, but, knowing the God of Abraham, she went cheerfully. The way led to at least three charges which did not have parsonages, but Brother Barr left no one of these without a parsonage. To these servants of God four children were given to brighten and bless their home, but two of them died in childhood. Two daughters, Mrs. J. A. Elder and Mrs. Charles W. Wesley, are left on this side of the great divide, heirs of the mantle of their parents, and are making a splendid contribution to the ongoing Kingdom of Christ through their social and religious activities. The honored father spent his last earthly days under the affectionate care of the two daughters in Mrs. Elder's home at Moss Point, Miss. No word of praise given to the unmarried daughter would be extravagant for her unselfish service, whole-hearted devotion, and affectionate care given to her parents in their declining days. She was truly an angel of mercy in her ministries.

Failing health had admonished Brother Barr that he must rest awhile, and at the Conference held in 1920 he asked for and was granted a superannuate relation. Having served the Foxworth charge three years immediately preceding his superannuation, and having many warm friends there, he decided to spend the remainder of his time on earth with them. He built a cozy home where he and his daughter could spend their days together, and the home was comfortably furnished, and free from debt. It gave him great pleasure to have his friends call and look through his house. It seems sad that he could enjoy it for only one year; but a Great Builder had finished and furnished a better home for him, and took him away from us. He told us that the call had come, and he was going soon, that he had no fears for the journey, and that we would know where to find him afterward. On Sunday, the first day of the new year, in the Methodist Church at Foxworth, in the presence of a great gathering of friends and neighbors, we gave him the benison of Christian burial. Revs. H. M. Ellis, L. L. Roberts, W. W. Murray and the writer joined in conducting the service. His body rests in the village cemetery, laid there by the fraternity of Free and Accepted Masons.

WILLIAM WALLACE HOPPER

One of God's noblemen has crossed life's ocean, experienced its storms and fogs, fought his battles, vanquished his foes, run his race, reached the goal, entered the haven of everlasting rest, received his crown and now exults in Victory.

He was born in Mobile, Alabama, May 20, and passed to his eternal reward from Montrose, Mississippi, on the morning of November 13, 1922. Thus a soul and body parted for a time, which had lived together in mystic union for more than seventy years, and a busy life closed upon earth forever.

Birth and death define the extremes of life, but it is the filling in of the years that counts, that really interprets life and its profound meaning.

He whose body we laid to rest in Waynesboro cemetery on the 14th of November, started in life with many advantages, among which were a vigorous body, physical courage, a mind well balanced and enough of family history to beget a healthy self-respect. His boyhood and youth were not enervated by easy circumstances, instead he was trained to labor and to wrestle with difficult affairs, thus gaining strength and the safe consciousness of its possession.

W. W. Hopper was converted at Frost Bridge Camp Meeting on the night of October 14, 1872—Licensed to preach in July, 1874—Received on trial in the Mississippi Conference in December, 1874. His first appointment was Decatur Mission, which included parts of Newton and Neshoba Counties.

He labored faithfully as Minister of the Gospel in the M. E. Church, South, for forty-eight years, nineteen of which were given to evangelistic work.

It was in November, 1881, at Standford, Kentucky, he received the blessing of entire Sanctification. In the first twelve years of his ministry, following this blessed experience, there were 3,305 conversions, 1,498 accessions to the church, and 1,455 professions of entire Sanctification. Among this number were men who are now prominent ministers in Southern Methodism.

He was married to Miss Hattie Renfroe, of Georgia, May 1st, 1879. In 1907 she passed to her eternal reward. His second marriage was in 1915 to Miss Dorá V. Stone, of Litchfield, Kentucky, who proved a very efficient helpmeet and a devoted companion in his declining years. This bereaved wife, three brothers, Dr. Henry P., James T., Hugh L. and one sister, Miss Annie Hopper, survive him.

Brother Hopper was a man of remarkably candid and clear intelligence. He was never hurried in his mental progress toward conclusions, but when carefully, deliberately and prayerfully reached, his conclusions were decided, dispassionate, final and there was nothing that could disturb the equipoise of his mind.

His knowledge of the rich beautiful things of Scripture was wonderful. How steeped his mind was in scriptural idioms, both in sermon and in prayer. His clear apprehension and vivid conception of Christ as Heavenly Lord was the power of his ministry, as it was of his character.

His presentation of the experience of Holiness was most fascinating. Men and women who heard him on this theme desired to go to their knees in prayer that they too might find Christ as a present and complete Savior. He urged the necessity of the Baptism of the Holy Ghost upon all believers with the sweetness of constraining love and the solemnity of Divine Authority. Filled by its bliss and inspired by its power, he was constantly telling of its charms and inviting to its pursuit. He was ever faithfully, actively and ceaselessly engaged in portraying the glories of the subject to the vision of the church, until many, ravished by its attractions, would aspire to its attainment and by faith enter into its enjoyment. He was a great preacher of all the fundamental doctrines of Methodism. Justification, regeneration, adoption and sanctification, and the beauty of it all is that his life, his every day walk and talk fitted as smoothly and perfectly into his teaching and preaching as a rosebud into its calyx.

One of the most deeply spiritual and useful men of our conference wrote, "It is so easy to connect the sainted Rev. W. W. Hopper with holiness and heaven! What a good man, a holy man he was;"

W. W. Hopper was a man with a message, not a theorist, not simply a doctrinaire, nor a mere instructor in theological propositions. He was here for the Master, whose glory was in all the scripture and whose presence he felt in all his personal life and work. He had a message to deliver and was straitened in his spirit until it was delivered. Every fiber of his being, physical and moral, came in to contribute to the intensity and power of his utterance. While stern toward iniquity as the flintest rock, his spirit was tender as the soft and sunny meadow in summer.

The Lord's gentleness made him great. His kindness of speech about those who misunderstood him was marvelous. He seemed like Moses to possess the majesty of meekness that belongs to one who dares to talk face to face with God. So it was indeed that he became the eloquent and powerful preacher whom we knew.

As Pastor of a parish or charge he was always highly honored and beloved by those to whom he ministered; and they who are left behind testify to the affectionate reverence with which in childhood, youth, mature years and old age they met his benignant presence. The unselfishness, the generosity, the quiet unconscious power, the purity of thought and speech of W. W. Hopper attracted his people to him and won for him a warm place in their hearts.

There are some lives that are disappointing, but the impressions which I formed of W. W. Hopper at the first, continued unchanged to the end of his life. I have known him in periods of tranquility, of undisturbed progress in his work; and I have known of him in times of strenuous and vehement controversy and always he was the same.

It is good to have known him in our youth when impressions upon us were immediate and most vivid. It is good to feel the blessed influence of his holy and beautiful life upon us still.

The secret of his magnificent life was revealed in a statement to a friend who visited him in his last illness. With a glow akin to heaven upon his brow, he said, "For me to live is Christ, to die is gain." The maiden whose name is "Peace" was in the death chamber. He was in the land of Beulah, where the shining ones walk, and was looking forward from the summit of the Delectable Mountains to the land and the city which are beyond. He longed to live that he might still further serve God and his Son in the ministry of the truth, yet, he was willing and ready to depart and be with Christ, which for him was far better. A voice from heaven said, "Come, Servant of God, well done," and his soul passed into the presence of Him who gave it.

How strengthened and enriched is the cause of Christ by such a life which leaves behind it a radiance of purity, goodness and peace, such as few bequeath to those who survive them. So lived, so loved, so triumphed, through faith in our Lord, and in the power of the Holy Spirit, one of the noblest whose life ever touched the silver trumpet of the temple service. That life with its many achievements has passed into history, its record is closed, the book is sealed, but its glory and influence shall live on forever.

We may forget many lessons of truth learned from his lips and many inspirations to nobler work which we received from his spirit, but we shall never forget the benediction of that blessing which was ours, as we gazed for the last time into that tranquil face transfigured as by the light of heaven. Truly he had met his pilot face to face as he had crossed the bar.

H. A. WOOD.

JAMES MONROE MASSEY

James Monroe Massey, son of Thomas and Amanda Massey, was born in Attala County, Mississippi, August 3, 1849, and was reared and received a common school education in that county.

During the year 1871, early in his twenty-first year, he was genuinely converted, and united with the Methodist Church.

He married Miss Burroughs in 1873. She preceded him to the other world some years ago, but he leaves three sons and four daughters.

Brother Massey was licensed to preach in 1876. He was ordained deacon in 1879 and ordained an elder in 1884. He joined the North Mississippi Conference in 1884 and served various charges until 1901 when he was granted a Supernumerary Relation and continued therein until 1901.

In 1901 he was transferred to the Mississippi Conference and was appointed to the Brooklyn charge, serving it one year. He was on the Satartia charge for two years, Anguilla two years, Oak ridge one year, Centreville one year and Wilkinson one year.

At the Conference of 1913, held at Natchez, he was granted a Superannuate Relation, and went to Houston, Miss., where he made his home with his daughter, Mrs. W. J. McWhorter.

Brother Massey was a man of simple tastes and habits; he believed in the old-time Gospel and preached it in its simplicity and power. His faith in his risen Lord was deep and abiding, and held firm unto the end.

He passed to his heavenly reward on January 23, 1922. Funeral services were held in the Methodist Church at Houston and the body laid to rest in the cemetery hard by the church.
